It was moved by Mr Borril, seconded by Mr Solomon, that the Association ask the treasurer to deliver up the books – carried.

There followed a discussion of the buss service. It was moved by Mr Solomon, seconded by Mr Borril, that it be left in the hands of Mr Herbert to call a meeting if it were necessary to go on with the buss petition and no definite news of the return of the busses was received.

Mrs Solomon, chairman of the School Committee, gave a report on the visit of Mr Riley, the Inspector of Schools. Mr Riley, she said, pointed out that the interests of the peninsular only were to be served and there did not seem to be enough representatives from this position. He advised recanvassing this district and asked for further information re available sites. A note of thanks was moved to the School Committee for their work.
